

Resources for Thoughtfully (and Proactively) Responding to Book Challenges

- (Video) View Spring 2022 Gathering Session on this topic (here)
- American Library Association \(ALA\) “Library Bill of Rights”
- ALA “Office for Intellectual Freedom”
 - screenshot of their services from their website

Support

- OIF provides confidential support to anyone undergoing a material or service challenge. You can report censorship using our updated form.
- Our free consulting services help you prepare for censorship and implement vital intellectual freedom best practices within your library or school. We create and edit policies, strategize plans for working with communities and families, and provide workshops and programs about the First Amendment, privacy laws, internet filtering, and intellectual freedom.

-
- NCTE Intellectual Freedom Center - report censorship, access position statements
- NCTE’s Book Rationales Database
- Strong Classrooms Self-Assessment - The Educator Collaborative - section on classroom libraries provides lenses for reviewing text collections
- Book Banning: A Brief History (infographic)
- We Need Diverse Books: Resources - expanded page with a wealth of resources and information